To Whom It May Concern:

Gov. Atiyeh

NOV 2 1984
GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, CALIF.

In the event that Plan C (the dropping of 2000 or more street people in The Dalles) goes into effect, Judson Baptist College is prepared to offer the following assistance:

1. The immediate use of the Judson kitchen facilities for the preparation of food for the homeless people. A Judson Baptist College staff person must oversee and instruct in the use of the facilities.
2. Volunteer help by any Judson Baptist College faculty, staff or students who would be obtainable in the Plan C emergency. Our student body has been notified that they may be contacted and are prepared to assist.

Jean Murray, public relations director for Judson Baptist College has agreed to be available should Plan C go into operation and has agreed to contact the necessary people at the College as specified above. She also agrees to serve as public relations spokesperson and media coordinator for the Salvation Army until the P.R. Director for the Army arrives in The Dalles.

The following is a list of phone numbers to contact in sequence in the event of Plan C:

1. Jean Murray - 298-4455W. 296-4190H.
2. Jack Koken - " " 296-3487H. Vice-President/Fiscal
3. Ron Halstead " " 296-3486H Kitchen
4. Kip Winans 296-9229 Dorm Student Body President
