

At Home ^{morning} Fri. Aug 19 1904

Dear Mama

Your card came yesterday came yesterday morning, and we were glad to know you were having such a pleasant time. The boys picked a gal of blackberries and I took them over to Ellen Wed afternoon, but she and Morgan had gone to town so I left them.

Fueman came home that noon and was there at Morgan's.

I took the pig in that morning in the wagon. It weighed 244[#] and brought 14.50.

I saw Bigear and he said there was no use in having a guardian for Pa, as he had nothing but real estate and no one was going to buy from him the way his mind was. And even if he sold his wife he was sure would not sign the deed,

Pa said something about his being mad at me, Byron said not to pay any attention to him.

I have not seen Pa since last Saturday.

Clifford was over to Thompsons again yesterday, but they had no word as yet from M Minnette.

Elmer will be through cutting the ripe grain today, and Cliff will have it all shocked. I believe Lassell's intend to spray again soon, so he may get wheat again.

Allen said the other day that Shaw told her they were going to have ice cream again at our grange (a week from tomorrow). Cliff and I raised the end of the Kitchen yesterday afternoon, not as much as it first was, but much better than it has been. It was tearing the wallpaper along the edges of the ceiling is one reason for not raising it higher. Ruf

 Simpson has gone to Haldings
 I wish I was there for say two weeks. I am not to say sick, but feel weak and languid
 especially mornings.

I'll do the best I can to keep things agoing, so long as you are getting needed rest and are improving I am willing to bear the burdens
 that come upon me.

I wrote you Tuesday and sent letter to town by a man that afternoon. I hope you rec'd it, I thought I might call "Papa"
 Love to all, and heartiest thanks to Ralph, Maya

Malon Emma & others. Affectionately
 Leopus Walker
