

OREGON BUS LINES

Trailways, Inc.

Contact Person: Ray Ownby
Home Phone: 775-3881 (Portland)
Work Phone: 238-6224 (Portland)
Portland Terminal: 238-8571

Carrier would like a minimum of 3 hours notice if extra sections are required. There is extra equipment available in Portland. Also buses can be brought down from Seattle.

Carrier serves north and south on I-5 and has charter authority from Oregon to other states.

Greyhound Lines

Contact Person: Cleon Cox
Home Phone: 244-1857 (Portland)
Work Phone: 243-2321 (Portland)
After Work Hours Operations Phone: 243-2316

Carrier would like 3 to 4 hours notice if extra sections are required. Greyhound has equipment available for charter during mid week. Charter buses are in short supply on the weekends. Two hundred people could be hauled in a charter operation from central Oregon to Portland during mid week.

Greyhound provides regular scheduled service over I-5 and I-84 as well as unrestricted charter service within Oregon.

Raz Transportation (Century Stages)

Contact Person: Jim Klingler
Home Phone: 639-5332 (Portland)
Work Phone: 246-3301 (Portland)

Carrier has charter type authority only. There is good equipment availability during the week; however, due to advanced bookings there are few if any buses available on the weekends. Raz needs at least 1 hour notice to make a bus available.

Pacific Trailways

Contact Person: Vern Trigg
24 hours per day phone: 285-9845 (Portland)

Carrier wants 2 hours advance notice to make additional buses available. Up to 10 extra sections could be made available.

Oregon Bus Lines
Page 2

Buses are in short supply on the weekends.

Pacific Trailways provides regular scheduled service between Salt Lake City and Portland through Burns and Bend, and between The Dalles and Klamath Falls over USHR 97 and USHR 197. Carrier also has unrestricted charter authority within Oregon.

The Gray Line Company

Contact Person: Vern Trigg
24 hours per day phone: 285-9845 (Portland)

Gray Line has up to 5 buses available during the week. Supply is tight on weekends. Carrier desires 2 hour notice to supply buses.

Gray Line has unrestricted charter authority within Oregon. It does not provide a regular scheduled service.

Resort Bus Lines

Contact person: Vince or Carol Bruno
Home Phone: 389-2281 (Bend)
Work Phone: 389-7755 (Bend)

Resort can put up to 2 additional sections on its schedules. Carrier provides regular scheduled service between Bend and Portland and charter authority from central Oregon.

nm/0675N