HILLSBORO

Agency seeks coats for preschoolers

Community Action has extended its Adopt-a-Class Campaign through Jan. 14 to enable more children enrolled in the Head Start program to receive winter coats.

There are two classrooms in Tigard, four in Hillsboro and one or two in Beaverton in which children, ages 3-5, have not yet received coats, according to Elena Uhing of the agency's Resource Development Department.

Coat donations may be dropped off between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays at Community Action, 1001 S.W. Baseline St.

Community Action is a nonprofit that helps low-income families in Washington County with financial and housing assistance.

Financial donations may be made online at hopehelpchange.com.

For more information or to adopt a class, contact Uhing at 503-693-3252.
