President's Report Jim Hortman
For year ending 1949 Jan. 7, 1950

The Cornelius Community Recreation Club began 1949 with plans for a Talent Show, the proceeds of which were to go into a tennis court fund. Plans were then made and carried out for a hamburger stand at Hillsboro during the 4th of July celebration. The same equipment was used to have a hamburger stand at Balm Grove for the C.I.O. picnic. The proceeds from these activities were placed in the tennis court fund. This fall, space for two tennis courts was surfaced and is now completed except for posts, backstops and laying out the courts. Some of the material for this is on hand.

During the winter there has been basketball and other games in the gym and during the summer, baseball and softball were played on the playground.

In August the club had a picnic at Balm Grove that was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed.
