

Play it Again - Future
February 04, 2004

Present: Cliff Hillebrandt, Mary Alice Ford and Vickie Rocker.

Staff: Jeri Alcock, Jerralynn Ness, Jodi Davis, and minutes by Natalie Horne

Jeri Alcock welcomed everyone and called the meeting to order at 9:05a.m.

The Blazers Community Builders "Heart of the Community" award recognizes one individual from each of four counties: Clackamas, Clark, Multnomah, and Washington, for outstanding volunteer service. Cliff Hillebrandt has been selected from Washington County. The awards luncheon will be held at the memorial Coliseum on February 11th.

Strengths of the Program We Want to Preserve:

- Serving families
- Clothes go directly to people
- Shopping experience
- Convenient for donors

Preparing For the Future:

- We need to reach out to other groups (JN)
 - ✓ Mary Alice will contact Ecumenical Ministries
 - ✓ Mary Alice will contact William Temple House regarding their interest in having a presence in Washington County
 - ✓ Jodi will meet with RSVP regarding potential partnership
- We really need to talk with existing supporters and partner agencies first (CH)
- We need to find a manager or umbrella agency (JN)
 - ✓ Jerralynn will look in Community action to address better program placement; must move it out of Resource Development

Next Step:

Hold a luncheon and invite all interested parties to attend

- Potential dates: March 30th or 31st
 - ✓ Jodi will organize
- Invitees should include: service groups, faith groups, business (real estate), chambers, developers, our board members, PIA Future committee
 - ✓ Vickie agreed to have a role in the program
 - ✓ Jerralynn will send an e-mail inquiry to potential invitees first

Next meeting: March 3, 2004
