

Two Blocks East of Portland Crematorium
New Pipe Organ with Cathedral Chimes

C. Lawrence spent the 4th of July in pleasant time.

ING?

Insure

en Now Do
aying!

Y FROM
lexander
URANCE

lavel St.

If no answer

7521

. Alexander

Complete Motor Tune-up

Old-Established Community Service
ation and Auto Repair Shop

Gasoline, Tires and Life of Your Car

adquarters for Tires, Tubes & Recaps et Tires and Furnish New Ones or Recaps if Needed

to Insurance

Represent the Old Reliable

State Farm Mutual Ins. Co.

The Congenial Gardeners

The Congenial Gardeners had an outdoor breakfast at Hoyt Arboretum for their last meeting, July 16. Mrs. Lennie Johnson in charge Capt. Bradford conducted a tour of the Arboretum. At the June meeting Mrs. Doris Winters, new president, named her officers: Publicity-Mrs. Helen Ferris; Means-Mrs. Thad; Mrs. Len; Mrs. Anna Ewing; program-Miss Alena Jacob; Mrs. Helen Ferris-Pub.

Larry Evans

Larry Evans, 62, a retired policeman, died recently in Taft, after suffering a heart attack, his daughter, Mrs. Ruth Swaggart of Portland, was informed.

Evans, who was a patrolman when he retired in May, 1942, joined the police department April 12, 1918, and was assigned to the day relief at precinct I at the time of his retirement.

Funeral services were at Portland Crematorium. Survivors other than the daughter are two sisters, Mrs. Claude Meyers of Tillamook, and Mrs. Lora Hite of Portland.

Floyd D. Moore

Attorney-at-Law

Office Phone BR. 5469

Residence Lancaster 5825

Office: 817 Public Service Building

Res.: 6715 S. E. 20th Avenue

Married: Atiyeh-Hewett

An all white wedding was that of Miss Dolores Hewett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Hewett, of 7101 SE 20th avenue, and Mr. Victor G. Atiyeh, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Atiyeh, of NE Holladay street, which was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, July 5 at 4:30 o'clock in Trinity Episcopal Chapel. Bishop Benjamin Dagwell read the service in the presence of relatives of the couple and a few close friends, and Mr. Hewett gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white tulle with fitted bodice and very full skirt. She carried a white prayer book with orchids from which fell a shower of white stephanotis. Her fingertip veil also fell from a headdress of stephanotis.

Miss Louise Hewett, in a white marguerite frock with a lace bodice, was her sisters only attendant. She carried American beauty roses and wore the same kind of flowers in her hair.

PFC Edward Atiyeh, who was home on furlough, was his brothers best man, and PFC Richard Atiyeh and Mr. Paul Smith were the ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Stearns room of the church, where the happy pair greeted the guests, after which they went to the mountains on their wedding trip. For traveling, the bride wore a grey wool talleur with matching accessories and a corsage of orchids.

They have taken residence at 6625 SW Canyon Lane. Mrs. Atiyeh has lived in Eastmoreland all her life, having gone to Duniway grade and Washington high school where she met her future husband. They are both graduates of the University of Oregon, where she majored in art and he took pre-law. Her sorority is Alpha Phi Omega and he is affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta.

They have a wide circle of friends who wish them a long life in which to enjoy health and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold R. Hattan, of 7828 SE 13th avenue, are receiving felicitations on the birth of a 7 pound 5 1/2 ounce son, Richard Arnold, Thursday, June 15 at Emanuel hospital. This is their second child, his big sister Elaine having preceded him 20 months. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf of Portland and Mrs. Lucy Hattan of Wichita, Kans.

sop St., is an employe of the U. S. Engineer's office and will reside with her parents for the duration. She was the motif for several pre-nuptial showers, receiving many lovely gifts. She is a graduate of Commerce high school and Behnke-Walker business college and the groom is a Benson Tech graduate.

Mrs. Julia Cornelius, a former resident of Sellwood, and Charles Hastings, an Iowa man, were married June 30 at Vancouver and are living at 4244 SE Milwaukie avenue where they are conducting a large rooming house. July 2 a family reunion took place at Reedport, Ore., with 18 present, mainly the relatives of Mrs. Hastings. Among them were her sister, Mrs. Amy Nelson of Fargo, N. Dak., and their brother, Mr. Maydale and wife of Fallside, Minn. The trio had not met for 20 years, so the event was a most joyous one, including the fine picnic dinner on the beach. All of Mrs. Hastings' children, with the exception of her son a service man in India, were present. Her sister has six sons in the service, three in the navy and three in the army.

Mrs. Ella Johnson of SE Linn St., is receiving condolences from her friends on the death of her eldest brother, Kay North at Reno, Nevada, last week. Her father, William North, who has spent several summers here with her, is also critically ill at Reno, he had gone there to visit his son. He has had a stroke, from which the doctor says he will not likely recover, owing to his advanced age.

Mr. and Mrs. William V. Pavia, of 5915 SE 19th avenue, are parents of a 6 1/2 pound daughter, Sharilyn Dee, born Friday, June 30th at Emanuel hospital. She has a 3 1/2 year-old brother, Donald Lee. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Pavia all of Portland. Mrs. Pavia and baby daughter came home Saturday afternoon and both are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson, of 1203 SE 13th avenue, have sold their home to the Stoval family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Stoval and their 12 year-old daughter, Suzanne, and Monday the Sellwood Transfer company moved them to an apartment on SE 14th ave. The Wilsons have lived there for over a quarter of a century and will be missed by their neighbors, but the move was made for his health.

Sam Dimond was among those present Wednesday evening at the farewell reception given Rev. and Mrs. Shellhart. He had come down from near Salem where he lives and expected to return to his home the following day.

Mr. and home was street ear approximat rented a ho while rebui tially as building made avail.

Melinda l ter born to of 1339 SE Emanuel ho es at six grandparen Dimick and Call all of Hunt move months ago

Mr. an turned from Kenzie brie spent a wee Morgan, wh over-night and near F some time Haines of I work Frida.

Lt. Colon been enjoy street home near Rivers has been at so had expe this. His lo speaks well fairness in him.

Mr. and SE Harney from a two Nesmith Po a lookout fo smith Point snowcapped is a fireman

A young l arrived in June 24 to Mr. and Mrs. No. 51; and Mrs. Marvir

Mr. and having the on Tacoma throughout