at the collection of Fall Lane. But by the way was that

Dear Mama

I was again very agreeably surprised in getting a letter from you. I like this getting two letters a week much better than getting one. I have not been very well today Had a "Fish Lake" spell come on last night, and lasting thro' the day. I have not felt very bad and worked nearly all the forenoon mixing putty and taking broken glass out of the windows, while Mr. Kimman put in new glass. Mrs. B & the girls washed all the upstairs & school house windows.
To day they scrubbed out the boys dormitory and the girls & girls sitting room. We will finish up tomorrow, putting in glass and getting windows in. No more new scholars. I laid down a while this afternoon the first time I have done so since you went away, except a short time some Sundays. The books &c came all right - & thanks to Pa. Sam Lester's confirmation came today as clear. Sam will not likely be home from The Dalles before Monday contrary to what I wrote Mr. Starr moved down yesterday & here is alone. She sent down by Mr. Starr one of her pictures to me. I guess

I had just as well capit-till you return. This morning was the coldest-this fall so far. The vines were nearly cut down to the ground.
I have written to Storer & Walker tonight, and told them it would be a great satisfaction to me whether ^{with kind} they thought favorably of my offer of July 29. or not. I got a letter from Mr. Gesner today saying if any mail came to keep it until I heard from him, and if I made any collections to keep the money until I heard from him; I hardly understand what he means, but think it is likely he is coming out, perhaps as one of the commissioners on the North boundary line. I am glad Pa is pleased with what I have done in his favor. I do hope Ma will get well again, and you too. Yes I'd like to be there to snuggle up to you. The nights are now getting cool enough to make it enjoyable. I am going to put on another blanket tonight. So far have been sleeping with only one and a quilt. Well good night and sweet be thy dreams. Ojues Sat morning Aug 3. Had a good nights sleep and fell better this morning, so guess I'll be all right. One day Mrs Cushman wanted some flour so I let her have what little there was in the flour chest. The day before they started off hop proving she brought me a small bad can full of luscious berries I dried them on the kitchen table and now send them to you enough for a taste. Sam told me the other day that Sallie Pitt said Holmes wrote off I think it was 8 pro blankets & only brought back 2 pro. Sallie may be down to Albany from Lebanon, where they were going to pick hops. Now if Pa can get her off dont it will go to show that Holmes not only let others steal but stole himself.
