Dear Mamma

I will answer your letter now. I would like to have some of that mince meat pie. I am like you folks I always expect a letter to be here when I come home Thursday night. It seems natural to hear that Papa is asleep on the lounge. You were mistaken about the Latonette girl, it was Ruth but I guess she has went back on the start she made that night. Buleau has been a member of the church about two years.

I got a nice souvenir this morning a church so will not need to keep one of those leaflets. What does the "Old Lady" think about the guard-ion matter. I hope the beef will keep alright and I guess the kroat will begin to taste good by Xmas.

You have a good deal more hope of recovery than many other who have had operations performed. That Hayse boy wanted $5.00 for his gun, I gave him a knife and was to give him $2.50 more. Tell Glenn to hold him

it. Glenn can tell him that I said it would cost him more than that old gun was worth in "Doctor Bills" when I came home & was if he didn't divvy up pretty quick.

You might tell Mrs. Faily
I miss her and Will. sometimes. It is raining now.

We had chicken for dinner today one that I picked and cleaned, it is my second.

I must write to Papa now.

Your Loving Son,
Clifford Walker.
