My Dear Precious Husband

Your card of 25th was rec'd. yesterday, instead of coming Saturday as it should have done. I sent a letter to you Friday & have forwarded lots of letters to you: 1 from Granville 2 from G. Grove 1 from Horace from Washington &c. Can't help feeling somewhat - anxious to hear what the one from W. contains as it may in a measure decide our fate. But I desire to leave this & all other cares with Him who "careth for us."

Don't worry about those seissors - I found them on the carpet in the parlour - they probably slipped out of your valise when you opened it to put something more in. Am sorry I didn't let you take those I had with me at Plattburgh; but thought you would find the others in your valise.

When I picked up the things in our rooms at the hotel, I found a few kernels of what I took to be some of your Oregon wheat - which I have carefully preserved - for you.

The weather has been more moderate lately. There was some rain Sat. P.M. & though it was a little cooler the next morning it didn't snap off so suddenly as it did the week before. Monday it thawed some & yesterday also & this A.M. we had quite a hard rain for awhile. I think that Fanny misses you. She talks about Bao-baw a great deal & sings a little song entitled Baw-baw away, which is dedicated to you. But the stage has come & I can't else before I have written half as much as I wish.

With ever increasing love your Margaret.

All as well as usual.
