

Honor Pacific U. Mascot "Boxer" Attends Banquet Sophomores Guard Image

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove, Or., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—"Boxer," the official "college spirit" of Pacific university, made his appearance at the holiday dinner of the Pacific alumni at the Hazelwood Thursday evening, December 30, adding much to the interest and enthusiasm of the occasion.

This 300-year-old Chinese image is recognized as the college mascot, and as his possession is the ambition of every class, his adventures have been many and varied and his appearance is always greeted with cheers.

He attended the dinner Thursday night under protection of a strong guard from the sophomore class, his present proud owners.

An informal business meeting following the dinner included a report from H. E. Witham, '09, on the progress of the plans for the financial campaign soon to be launched for funds for the university. The Rev. Phillip E. Bauer, '97, of Seattle was present and told of the recently organized branch of the Alumni association in that city.

HARRY J. KUNKEL, '23, Pacific University, with head of "Boxer," official mascot.