Dear Father & Mother

I write again today though I have not received any letter from you since Sunday. Horace is well now & we all are,
Monday Belle P. went home That morning we had our pictures taken. I & Alb. had a very good one, but I was not so successful. In fact mine were failures. Willie got a

Do not worry about us for we are getting along very well. I called on Mrs Dampier the other day & she wished to be remembered to you. This seems very natural.

It is pretty warm today. I am glad you are not here for I think you will be better there. I should like to see you very much. I do hope you are better now.

With ever so much love

Sarah S. Lyman
