IDA Program

Want to save money to start your own business, or attend college or other job programs?

Boost your savings with the Community Action IDA Program

Earn $3 for every $1 you save!

What is Community Action's Individual Development Account (IDA) Program?

With Community Action's IDA Program you can receive $3 for every $1 you save for your college education or job training, or starting or growing a child care business.

You may save up to $3,000 in your account and receive up to $9,000 in match money, giving you a total of $12,000 to invest in your goal!

Am I eligible?

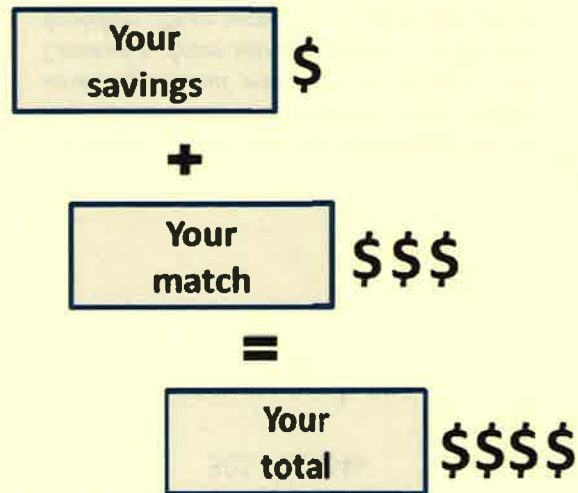

To qualify, you will:

- Have earned income in the household (at least part-time employment)
- Not exceed a certain amount of household income
- Have a Net worth of less than $20,000 (not including one vehicle and one home)
- Be willing and able to save at least $25 per month
- If you are eligible for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC), you may automatically qualify

Community Action IDA Program

We will match you $3 for every $1 you save toward your goal.

You can save for:

Your child care business

A degree or job training

How can the IDA Program change your life?

"I had given up the hope to go back to school for at least a couple more years because there was no way I could afford even a single class..."

The Garcia family, like most families, are trying to move ahead with their goals to improve their lives.

The IDA Program is helping Leonor save to earn her college degree so her family can move forward and thrive.

For every dollar she saves, she will earn 3 more and she can use the savings to pay tuition every term.

Whether your goal is to go to college or start or grow a child care business, the Community Action IDA Program can help you achieve your goal.
