

East Hartford 2 March

Dear Mr Lyman,

Dear Friend

Your of the 16th is received.

The letter you sent me, that I didn't receive went into the dead letter office. I obtained an official notice from Washington that there was one there for me, without any stamps and as it was about the time I should have received one you sent me from Halesmaxoo, I conclude you either forgot to put a stamp on or it came off. I am perfectly willing to reverse my decision about closing our correspondence, for I see by your letter that I was laboring under a mistake. That was the case with us all. We supposed that the money you expected to get in St. York was not any that was owing you but borrowed rather. If you had told me that it was money owing you from a reliable, solvent party, of course it would have put a very different aspect on the matter. I am very sorry that anything of the nature of misunderstanding should have occurred, it has made it unpleasant for us both. I suppose by this time you have reached your distant home, although you did not write when you expected to start. I thank you for your kind wishes and earnest prayers.

Hoping to hear from you as soon as convenient, I remain your sincere friend
Jane B. Rogers.
